

COVENANT NEWS

BAPTISM – Today we celebrate the baptism of the Hermes family’s newest daughter, Magnolia. What a season of blessing for Covenant!

TASTES OF ITALY POTLUCK– We hope you’ll plan to stay and fellowship with us at today’s "Tastes of Italy" potluck!

NEW LADIES BIBLE STUDY– begins this Wednesday, January 12th at 10 am at the church. Come encounter God's Word in the book of Philippians and find peace and contentment during perilous times. Contact Jo Rohrbaugh (904-417-5242) or Joy Simonson (850-896-4329) for more information and to order a study guide.

ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING -Please consider it a duty and privilege of church membership to come, be informed and vote next Sunday, January 16th after the service. We will hear year-end reports, have our corporation meeting, and vote on the budget and related business.

MORE SALT, MORE LIGHT CONFERENCE– Coming up on January 28th and 29th and in our own backyard (Anastasia Baptist Church), this important conference will encourage the church to think biblically about her mission and identity in this age of distraction. Our former pastor, Eric Watkins, and current elder, Tarence Dickerson, are both featured speakers. To register and view the schedule, go to www.midamerica.edu/cme/conference.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR MORE SALT, MORE LIGHT - Two or three host families are needed to provide housing for out-of-town participants. Can you help? Also, while conference meals are all catered, we do need help with serving and clean-up on both days. Sign-up sheets are in the narthex or be in touch with Brett Caruso if you can serve. bcaruso@covenant-opchurch.org

NEW LEADERSHIP CLASS-Starting Thursday, February 3rd at 7 pm, all men are invited to come, learn and fellowship as we wait on the Lord to raise up new men as elders and deacons to serve God's people.

However, please be sensitive to other worshippers if your children become distracting, and take them out until they settle themselves.
