COVENANT NEWS

ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING -Please consider it a duty and privilege of church membership to stay for this important meeting right after the morning service. We will hear year-end reports, have our corporation meeting, and vote on the budget and related business.

PARENTS NIGHT OUT- will take place this coming Friday the 21st with drop off starting at 4:45 pm and pickup at 8 pm. In addition to giving parents an evening out, our Covenant kids get to build friendships as well. Children up to age 11 participate (including nursery age kids) while older siblings are welcome to come and be helpers. Children should eat dinner before attending. If you have any questions please see Wendy McLeod.

MORE SALT, MORE LIGHT CONFERENCE- Coming up on January 28th and 29th and in our own backyard (Anastasia Baptist Church), this important conference will encourage the church to think biblically about her mission and identity in this age of distraction. Our former pastor, Eric Watkins, and current elder, Tarence Dickerson, are both featured speakers. To register and view the schedule, go to www.midamerica.edu/cme/conference.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR MORE SALT, MORE LIGHT - Two or three host families are needed to provide housing for out-of-town participants. Can you help? Also, while conference meals are all catered, we do need help with serving and clean-up on both days. Sign-up sheets are in the narthex or be in touch with Brett Caruso if you can serve. bcaruso@covenant-opchurch.org

NEW LEADERSHIP CLASS-Starting Thursday, February 3rd at 7 pm, all men are invited to come, learn and fellowship as we wait on the Lord to raise up new men as elders and deacons to serve God's people.

LADIES LUNCHEON- Saturday, February 5, from 11 am-1:30. "The Ladies of Reformation OPC in Oviedo want to extend an invitation to all the ladies of the Presbytery, to a Fellowship Lunch! Along with lunch, we are planning some activities around the tables that we hope will facilitate getting to know each other, learning about each others' churches, and praying for one another."
